THE WOODS MEETING

AT GEISELMAN'S.

A GRAND UNION RALLY!

A Proud Day for the Lower End!

THE PEOPLE IN MOTION,

For Johnson, Clymer, the Union and the Constitution!

The most successful political demonstration ever had in the Lower End of this county, came off at Daniel Geiselman's Grove, in Union township, on Saturday week. At an early hour in the day, the people commenced pouring into the grounds from all points. They came in delegations, with big teams, two-horse wagons, carriages, buggies, on horseback, and on foot. The display of flags, banners, wreaths, &c., with the large collection of people, formed altogether a scene which could not fail to delight the eye of every friend of the Union. The ladies were there, too, in goodly numbers. The Littlestown Band performed charmingly, whilst the "White Boys in Blue" of Gettysburg furnished martial music of a stirring character.

At about 11 o'clock, A. M., the meeting was organized at a spacious stand erected for the purpose, at the north side of the Grove—the stand being tastefully decorated with flags and wreaths of evergreens and flowers.

Hon. Wm. McSherry, of Littlestown, was called to the Chair, and upon entering on its duties, made a brief, but pointed and appropriate speech.

Vice Presidents, Daniel Geiselman, Esq., Joseph L. Shorb, Esq., Joseph Fink, Esq., Lewis Will, Jesse Eppelman, Amos Lefever, Esq., Peter Smith, Esq., John G. Byers, John Rife, Wm. Duttera, Samuel Shorb, Levi Golden, Isaac Lightner, Esq., Moses Hartman, Esq., Michael Fiscel, Joseph Arentz, Dr. D. S. Peffer, Jesse D. Newman, Esq., Col. Joseph J. Kuhn, Michael Dellone, J. E. Smith, Esq., Daniel Lawrence, Col. R. C. Swope, David Kendlehart, John Rudisill, Capt. J. E. Miller, Richard Fitzgerald, Joseph Wolf, (Butler,) G. B. Yantis, Emanuel Neidich, Thomas N. Dicks, Jacob Miller, John Lilly, Robert Watson, Major D. J. Benner, Nicholas Codori, Sr., Wm. A. McSherry, Dr. C. E. Goldsborough, Major J. M. Bollinger, Samuel Schwartz, Jesse D. Keller, Peter Neiderer, Samuel G. Sneeringer, Peter Markley, Reuben Golden, Henry Wiest, Christian Hemler, Philip Donohue, Capt. T. Brady, Samuel Hilt, John Henry Myers, George W. Stover, John Lynch, M. H. Timmins, Adam Rebert, Esq.; Samuel Wolf, Esq., Jacob Bushey, Esq., Peter Orndorff, James C. Duttera, Henry J. Kuhn, Wm. Rider, Bernard Noel, Jeremiah Gitt, Emanuel D. Keller, Jacob Lentz, George Hollebaugh, Henry Miller, Esq., E. J. Wilson, John McMaster, Isaac Herster, Joseph Dellone, Esq., Frederick Wolf, Capt. W. H. Brogunier, Capt. S. Faber, Samuel Eicholtz.

Secretaries, Dr. C. W. Benson, Capt. Chas. F. Hinkle, Henry J. Hemler, Joseph Spangler, John Wertz, Dr. E. F. Shorb, Dr. W. J. McClure, Edward Shorb, Daniel Biesecker, Henry L. Hemler, George A. Codori, James W. Gubernator, Frank Sheeringer, Andrew Pottorff, John Bormuth, Ephraim Fiscel, Lieut. S. H. Eicholtz, Joseph Bederman, James Spalding, John C. Ruff, E. G. Heagy, John Bender, Stephen Heinerd, Alfred Slonaker, Joseph Wolf, (Abbottstown.)

The President then introduced as the first speaker, Hon. Richard Vaux, of Philadelphia. He was received with cheers, after which he proceeded to discuss the leading issues of the day. His speech abounded in solid argument, so clearly and pointedly made as to carry conviction to every mind open to the truth. He dissected the revolutionary designs of the Radicals with a masterly hand, and placed the remedy fully and fairly before his hearers. Whilst the Radicals are striking at the vitals of the nation, the people have it in their power to defeat their plots by rallying around the President and taking position with him upon the old broad platform of the Union under the Constitution. We cannot do justice to this great speech in a newspaper sketch, and must be content with this mere allusion to it. It seems to us that if there were any of doubting faith present, they must have had all doubts removed by the unanswerable speech of Mr. Vaux.

The second speaker was Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, the Democratic candidate for Congress. Mr. S's. ability at the bar and on the stump is well known in this region, and when we say that this was one of his best efforts, the reader will at once conclude that his hearers enjoyed a rich treat. His discussion of national topics, especially in their bearing upon Pennsylvania politics, was clear and convincing, whilst his appeals to the people to stand up in their own defence against the Radical assaults, were forcible and telling. That Mr. Sharpe has the ability to represent this district in Congress with credit to himself and his constituents, a single speech of his proves—and that he will go there, the enthusiasm with which he is received most surely foreshadows.

Hon. F. M. Kimmell, of Chambersburg, was next introduced. Judge K. holds a front rank among the public speakers of the day, and his speech on Saturday proved how well he deserves it. For sound argument, keen sarcasm, and a pleasing raciness, it was not to be excelled—and the applause which so frequently greeted him testified how warmly his remarks were appreciated. After knocking the props from the main positions of the Radicals, he alluded to the so-called "Deserter Law," and proved it, under the decision of the Supreme Court, to be entirely worthless, and not binding upon anybody.

Wm. A. Duncan, Esq., then briefly addressed the meeting in regard to the importance of the election, and H. J. Stahle closed with a few allusions to the county ticket.

The meeting adjourned with three cheers for Johnson, three for Clymer, three for Sharpe, and three for the county candidates.

The meeting was a grand success, and everybody was pleased—pleased with the excellent arrangements which Mr. Geiselman and those assisting him had made—pleased with the beautiful grounds—pleased with the bright weather—pleased with the good cheer—pleased with the able speaking—pleased with the good music—pleased with the big crowd—and last, but not least, pleased with the earnest and enthusiastic spirit manifested by each and all.

From the Lancaster Intelligencer.

BRUTAL TREATMENT OF SISTERS OF CHARITY BY JOHN W. GEARY.

John W. Geary, with his narrow intellect and bigoted nature, we have no doubt, made a most acceptable member of that infamous political organization which proscribed men on account of their birth or religious belief. His hatred of Catholics did not end with the short-lived triumph of the Know-Nothing party. It adhered to him, and was afterwards displayed in the most offensive manner possible.

One of the most intelligent, wealthy and respectable citizens of Frederick, Maryland, sends us the following statement of an occurrence, which shows in its true light the bigoted and tyrannical character of the vain upstart who is the Radical candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania. We give the facts in his own language:

To the Editors of the Intelligencer:

DEAR SIRS:—It occurs to me that justice demands that the rude and brutal manner in which some Sisters of Charity were treated by John W. Geary, should be known, in order that the Catholic citizens of Pennsylvania may understand the character and spirit of the man who appeals to them for support at the coming gubernatorial election. The facts will be sufficient without any comment, though you are of course at liberty to use them as you see fit.

In the fall of 1861, under protection of a pass from General Scott, some four or five Sisters of Charity left the St. Joseph's House at Emmitsburg on their mission to nurse the sick and wounded soldiers of both armies. They had permission to visit any point along the line of contest from Winchester to Richmond, as their services might be needed. While traveling on the cars of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, under permission from the commander in chief at Washington to go where they pleased in discharge of the duties of their sacred mission, they were arrested at Point of Rocks by Col. John W. Geary. In a rude manner they with their baggage were removed from the cars and left among crowds of soldiers and rough camp followers, sitting without shelter on their trunks by the roadside. It was not until after repeated solicitations that Col. Geary consented to grant an interview to the principal sister, a lady of education and refinement, as were her associates. Finally this military dignitary gave orders to have her led into his august presence by a guard.

In vain did she explain fully the charitable character of her holy mission; in vain did she exhibit the general and unrestricted pass given her by the Commander-in-Chief at Washington, authorizing her to go, with her associates, wherever their holy mission might call them, or wherever they might be needed to nurse the wounded and console the dying; in vain did she beg to be allowed to proceed as several parties of Sisters had been allowed to do unmolested before, over the same route; in vain did she speak of the crying wants of the wounded, the sick, the dying soldiers of the Union army, to relieve and succor whom was a great part of her mission; in vain did she assure this petty tyrant (Geary) that she had nursed the sick and wounded soldiers of all parties in the Crimean war, without molestation or hinderance, receiving from Turk and Russian no less courtesy and kindness than she did from Frenchman or Englishman; in vain did she protest with tearful entreaties against such usage in her native land, after having traveled on a similar mission all over Europe unmolested. John W. Geary, a bigot by nature and a petty tyrant in his position thrust her and her companions into the cars and sent them back to Frederick City, on their way to the House of St. Joseph, from which they came.

The Surgeon General at Frederick, a high-toned gentleman, and a native of Philadelphia, hearing of the manner in which the Sisters of Charity had been treated by Geary, and fearing the damaging effect which such brutal conduct would have upon the many thousands of Catholic soldiers who were fighting in the front ranks of the army, at once despatched an orderly to Gen. Banks, at headquarters near Poolsville, with a letter containing a statement of the conduct of General Geary, which letter will be found officially recorded on the books of the Medical Director. The Adjutant, after riding all night, returned to Frederick with an imperative order, commanding General Geary to escort in person and place safely on the Southern side of the Potomac the said Sisters of Charity, and to give to them every assistance to aid them in the discharge of their sacred mission of mercy. With what grace he could, after his brutal conduct, Geary did escort them beyond the Potomac after having endeavored to set himself up as superior to the Commander-in-Chief.

Any soldier who was under Geary at Point of Rocks at the time alluded to will remember his treatment of these Sisters of Charity. He will not dare to deny one word of the above statement. If he should the Medical Director and the Sisters will testify to the entire truthfulness of what is here written.

The above facts have been furnished in the shape in which they appear, as we have stated, by one of the wealthiest, most intelligent and honorable men in the City of Frederick. They show what a mean and miserable bigot John W. Geary is. We hope our contemporaries will give the statement a wide circulation.

FREEMEN, RALLY, for your country and your race!

W. A. DUNCAN,
Chairman Democratic County Committee.
Sept. 17, 1866.

OFF GO THEIR HEADS!

The work of decapitation has commenced in earnest. President Johnson has determined that those who are not for the Union shall not hold its offices, and the result is, disunion Radical heads are falling all around us. The Philadelphia changes were made last Monday, the new appointments being: For Director of the Mint, Hon. William Millward; Treasurer of the Mint, Chambers McKibbin; Postmaster, Charles M. Hall; Naval Officer, J. R. Flanigan; Appraiser, Gustavus Hay; Deputy, Col. Thomas C. McDowell.

Hon. A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, has been appointed Revenue Assessor for this district, in place of R. G. Harper, and Col. R. C. Swope, of this county, Revenue Collector for the district, in place of Edward Scull. Now, how, Radicals; it's the only way you can comfort yourselves.

Matthew P. Welsh, Conservative (Johnson) Republican, has been appointed Postmaster at Chambersburg, in place of J. W. Deal, negroite

BE ASSESSED!

Be sure that you are assessed! Do not take it for granted, but see to it in person! We lose votes every year by carelessness in this matter. The election comes on Tuesday, October 9th. See to it that every Democratic voter is assessed at least ten days before that time. Do not wait until the last day. Attend to this important matter at once.

☞Vote for Clymer and the Union.

KOONTZ AND THE SOLDIERS.

He Votes Against the Bounty Bill.

Congress had spent nearly eight months in legislating for the negro, and on the last day of the session managed to reach a bill for bounty to the white soldiers. The bill proposed $100 to three-year soldiers and $50 to those who served but two years.

The proceedings on the bill were thus given by the "Associate Press," a Republican concern:

After considerable debate the previous question was seconded, and the main question was ordered on agreeing to the report. There seemed at first to be some hesitancy on ordering the yeas and nays, but Mr. Conkling called upon members to rise and let the vote be taken squarely, and the yeas and nays were ordered.

At the close of the call there was a majority of ten votes in the negative, but there were several members who had not answered when first called; some who had voted yea, finding themselves likely to be in a minority, changed their votes to nay, and again, when the tide turned, changed back again to yea. The members who voted yea then began to explain their votes.

At length all the members present had voted, and the oft-changed list showed a majority of one in favor of the report. The vote was thereupon announced—yeas 51, nays 50.

The bounty bill was thus passed by but one majority.

The following is the vote in detail, as it will be found in the official proceedings for the day:

YEAS.—Messrs. Anderson, Banks, Barker, Benjamin, Bergen, Clarke of Kansas, Cullom, Driggs, Eckley, Eldridge, Farnsworth, Farquhar, Ferry, Glossbrenner, Higby, Hogan, Holmes, Hotchkiss, Hubbard of West Virginia, Ingersoll, Jenckes, Johnson, Kelley, Kerr, Kuykendall, Latham, Le Blond, Leftwitch, Marston, Maynard, McClug, McCullough, Miller, Moorhead, Myers, Newell, Niblack, Nicholson, O'Neill, Patterson, Randall of Pennsylvania, Rice of Massachusetts, Rice of Maine, Schenck, Strouse, Taylor of Tennessee, Taylor of New York, Van Horn of Missouri, Whalley—51.

NAYS.—Messrs. Allison, Ashley of Nevada, Baker, Baxter, Bidwell, Bingham, Boutwell, Bromwell, Cobb, Conkling, Defrees, Eggleston, Elliot, Finck, Garfield, Harding of Illinois, Hart, Hayes, Hubbell of Ohio, Kasson, Ketchum, KOONTZ, Laflin, Lawrence of Pennsylvania, Lawrence of Ohio, Lynch, Mercur, Morrill, Morris, Orth, Paine, Perham, Phelps, Plants, Price, Ritter, Rose, Sawyer, Shanklin, Shellabarger, Stokes, Taber, Thomas, J. L., Jr., Trimble, James, Van Aernam, Walker, Wilson of Iowa, Wilson of Pennsylvania, and Wright—50.

Soldiers, Koontz is again asking you for your votes. Will you endorse his TREACHERY to you by voting for him a second time?

BORDER SUFFERERS, LOOK HERE!

In 1862 the western part of our county suffered considerably by Stuart's raid, and in 1863 heavy losses were incurred in all sections of it, but especially in the neighborhood of the battle. Many farmers were nearly ruined, by the destruction of their buildings, their fences, their crops,—everything. The sufferers were certainly entitled to substantial consideration at the hands of the Legislature of their own State. They were entitled to it in the light of Right, as well as Charity.

The Republican leaders were profuse in their promises of relief, and in the canvass of 1863 gave out the assurance that provision for remuneration would surely be made.

Now, how were these pledges redeemed? When the matter came up in the Legislature of 1864, the Republican members, with very few exceptions, began throwing obstacles in the way of the payment of the damages, and finally succeeded in killing every measure having relief in view. Near the end of the session, Mr. Sharpe, of Franklin, (now the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district,) proposed that the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars be appropriated towards making good the losses on the border; and even this pittance was refused by the Republican majority. On the call of the yeas and nays, by Mr. Sharpe and Mr. Marshall, the result was—YEAS 33, ALL DEMOCRATS—NAYS 50, ALL REPUBLICANS.

The efforts since made to secure relief have been equally unsuccessful, and all because the Legislature has been controlled by a Radical majority.

Change the Legislature—elect a Democratic Governor—and justice will be done our suffering people. But, mark our word, not until then.

MONSTER MEETINGS.

The meetings held by the conservative men, for the discussion of the vital issues now presented to the people, are more numerously attended than political gatherings have been in Pennsylvania in any former campaign. The masses are fully aroused to the importance of the great issues involved in the pending contest, and firmly resolved to hurl the Radical revolutionists from power. Wherever Hiester Clymer, our noble standard bearer, goes, he is greeted by assembled thousands of earnest and thoughtful freemen. The political sky is bright, and there is abundant promise of a glorious and crowning victory.

☞The Fulton Democrat, in noticing the fact that the Sheriff of that county, in obedience to orders from Harrisburg, has inserted the unconstitutional Deserter Law in his election proclamation, says:

This he has done not out of the slightest shade of belief that the law is of any effect, but simply out of obedience to orders. We have already said all that was necessary for us to say about this law. We shall treat it as the Supreme Court requires us and all law-abiding men to treat it—as a nullity and dead letter. And we have only to say that the election officer of Fulton county who rejects a vote under the sham pretext of this law, will be treated as a violator of the most sacred rights of the citizen. Let any Abolition Judge or Inspector just try the experiment, and our word for it he will find law-suits enough on his hands before a week thereafter to satisfy him for one year at least.

The Democrat speaks our mind exactly.

☞The ranting demagogue Cessna, in his speech to the Radical meeting in the Court-house, on Tuesday evening, declared that if this party succeeded this fall, they would impeach the President! Lovers of your country, do you want another war, to gratify the devilish hates of these Radical Revolutionists? If you do, vote for Geary! If you want law, order, peace and prosperity, vote for Clymer!

☞The Harrisburg Telegraph is attacking Gen. Grant. That don't look as if Grant was against the President.

THE MASS MEETING.

We would remind our Democratic and Conservative friends throughout the county of the mass meeting to be held in this place, on Thursday, the 4th day of October next. It is desired that there should be a large turn-out on that occasion, and we would urge our friends in the various districts of the county to go to work at once to have their districts represented by large delegations.

We are passing through a most momentous crisis in our country's history. The citadel of liberty is assailed by a party led on by a set of maddened and infuriated radicals and revolutionists, equaled only by the Jacobin leaders who made the streets of Paris run red with blood during the French Revolution. If the freemen of America would preserve the institutions of our fathers, and avert from American soil the horrors of that bloody period in French history, they must arouse to action. The enemy is on the ramparts, and with impious hands are endeavoring to tear down and trample in the dust the Constitution of our country—the sheet anchor of our safety. Let the unbought freemen of the country rally in their strength, and in a voice of thunder declare that the thing shall not be!

We have passed through a bloody war of four years to restore the Union. It was for this purpose that Pennsylvania sent three hundred and fifty thousand of her sons to the field, many of whom poured their life-blood upon the altar of their country as a libation to the Union of these States. Four thousand millions of dollars were expended by the general government for the same object. Shall we now say that all this expenditure of blood and treasure has been in vain? God forbid.

The Radicals say that the Constitution of our fathers must be torn to pieces, and that the Union under it shall not be restored with their consent. They are laboring to make our national banner in truth what Greeley termed it years ago—"a flaunting lie"—by tearing ten stars from its glorious galaxy. They labored for eight long months, during the recent session of Congress, to subvert and overthrow our constitutional form of government, and establish on its ruins a centralized military despotism; and were only prevented from consummating their fiendish purpose by the heroic firmness of that indomitable patriot, ANDREW JOHNSON.

If they succeed in the coming elections, they will renew these efforts at the next session, and, in all probability, the sun of American liberty and constitutional government will set forever.

Freemen of Adams county, if you would contribute your mite towards the overthrow of this Radical revolutionary faction that is seeking to prevent a restoration of the Union, and to destroy your government, lay aside your work and devote one day to your country's cause. Come to the mass meeting on the 4th of October in all your strength and swear on the altar of your country that the Constitution shall be maintained and the UNION SHALL BE RESTORED.

☞The Geary demonstration in this place on Tuesday last, was—"this, and nothing more"—a parade of 298 men and boys on horseback, and 413 men, women and children, (including several negroes,) in buggies, carriages, wagons, and on foot—the "grand procession," (to get up which so much time and labor had been spent,) numbering, on the highest count, but 621 persons! Some of the counts were lower, but most of them in the neighborhood of 600, and the very highest 621. There is no getting over these figures—even Radical counters having been compelled to acknowledge their correctness. The Hanover delegation (from another county) was the largest in attendance, whilst Emmitsburg, Maryland, contributed no little to swell the "crowd!" In enthusiasm the meeting was just as much of a failure. Krountz, the libeller of this community, and Geary's friend, would have elicited as many cheers. The promise of big speakers was redeemed with the presence of Geary, a humbug calling himself Prof. Leo. Miller, and John Cessna. These were all the speakers—Cessna spreading himself in the evening also, to a meeting in the Court-house, (the smallest yet held there) and proving himself a low, vindictive blackguard. His speech was too much for some of his own party friends, who left in disgust. The doings of the entire day were small—but those of the evening the smallest. If Geary found comfort in them, he was easily flattered.

GRANT TO LEE.

Gen. Grant has written an important letter to Gen. Lee. He declares that neither General Lee nor any officer or soldier who surrendered on the close of the rebellion can ever be tried for treason so long as they observe the terms of their parole; that such was the solemn pledge of the Government; that it met with the hearty approval of President Lincoln; and that a violation of the terms of surrender on our part, would release them from all obligations on their part. He condemns the action of Judge Underwood and declares that President Johnson will faithfully observe the terms granted by his predecessor. He recommends the pardon of General Lee, and endorses his application to President Johnson. All this he does under his official signature, in a letter dated at the headquarters of the Army of the United States.

What will Thad. Stevens, and the whole crew who are crying out for the hanging of Lee and his comrades, do with General Grant? Will they impeach him or try him by a drum-head court-martial?

"COULDN'T SEE IT!"

We learn from the Hanover Citizen that, a week or two ago, a negro-loving "loyalist" sent a note and made a very earnest appeal to a young soldier residing in the lower end of Adams, who had served three years as a private and lost a leg at Cold Harbor, to attend the mongrel meeting which was held in Gettysburg on Tuesday last. But it was no go. The brave soldier refused to comply with the entreaties of this would-be politician, and said, "I went into the war and fought it out for the flag and Union; but do not think for a moment that since I have fought the traitors South and been maimed by their bullets, that I could support a Northern traitor. God forbid it. I am opposed to negro-equality, and in favor of the white man's government, and therefore can't vote for Geary or any other man of the negro school of politics."

This is the view entertained by the fighting Generals of the war, and by the great body of the rank and file. They are still for the Union—not the negro.

THE PEOPLE!

They are Rallying to the President!

They are for the Union and the Constitution—not for Negro Suffrage and Equality.

JOHNSON AND CLYMER MEETING AT BREAM'S.

One of the largest meetings ever held at Francis Bream's, on Marsh Creek, we witnessed there on Monday evening.—Cumberland and Highland turned out spiritedly, and the Borough contributed quite a delegation. The meeting organized as follows:

President, Jacob Hereter, Esq.

Vice Presidents, Henry Butt, Jacob Lott, Jeptha Dubs, Lewis Hoope, Francis Bream, Levi M. Plank, Simon Haner, Peter Epley, Jr., Jacob Smith, Samuel Johns.

Secretaries, Wm. E. Myers, John Dubs, Raphael Sherfy, Frank Eckenrode, Emanuel Plank, John Epley, Jacob Bream.

Speeches were made by E. B. Buehler, Esq., J. H. White, Esq., Jesse D Newman, Esq., and H. J. Stahle—and of course the meeting adjourned with hearty cheers, such as they know so well how to give on Marsh creek.

AT ABBOTTSTOWN.

This proved to be a grand rally of the lower end, notwithstanding the rain which set in before night. The people came in from all quarters, making such a gathering as we never saw at Abbottstown but once before, and that was at a day-light mass meeting during an exciting campaign. The meeting was called to order in front of Wilson's Hotel, by Dr. McClure, and the following officers were proposed and elected:

President, Frederick Wolf, Esq.

Vice Presidents, Peter Hoffheins, Jonas Doll, Henry Miller, Esq., Anthony Thoman, Jacob McLain, Daniel Becker, Henry J. Kuhn, John H. Asper, John Mollison, Jesse Bucher, Major Henry Wolf, Henry Householder.

Secretaries, James W. Marshall, S. A. Wertz, Frank Smith, Charles Dosh, Henry Wiest, George C. Mayer, Newton Stoner, Samuel Kinneman.

Dr. D. S. Peffer, Dr. W. J. McClure, and H. J. Stahle addressed the crowd for several hours, amidst much enthusiasm.

AT CONRAD WAGNER'S.

The continuous heavy rain on Wednesday evening prevented a large turn out at Conrad Wagner's, in Mountpleasant township. A speaker's stand had been erected in the grove opposite the hotel, but the falling rain drove everybody in doors—where an organization was had, as follows:

President, W. H. Lott, Esq.

Vice Presidents, Charles Schlosser, John Staub, Joseph Biederman.

Secretaries, Albert H. Parr, A. X. Noel.

The meeting was addressed by Jesse D. Newman, Esq., and H. J. Stahle. Everybody gave the speakers their attention, and the very best feeling prevailed.

AT EAST BERLIN.

More rain! still more rain!—but it did not prevent a fine meeting at East Berlin, on Thursday evening. The number in attendance exceeded our most sanguine expectations, and the most cheering feeling prevailed. The following organization was had:

President, Col. J. J. Kuhn.

Vice Presidents, Michael Dellone, Wm. S. Hildebrand, Samuel Orndorff, Daniel Becker, Joseph Woods, Jeremiah Slaybaugh, John Geiselman, George King, John Lynch, Michael Bohn, George G. Hyde, John Wiest, Jr., Franklin Baugher, John Houdeshell, Peter Hoffheins, Israel Trostle, Michael Alwine, Hezekiah Lau, Joseph Wolf, Wm. Hoffheins, Jesse Jacobs, A. K. Stoner, Joseph Todt.

Secretaries, George D. Binder, C. E. Kuhn, Henry L. Miller, Philip Hartman, George Baker, Esq., James W. Marshall.

Dr. D. S. Peffer, W. A. Duncan, Esq. Adj. J. H. White and H. J. Stahle addressed the meeting until a late hour, when, after rousing cheers for Johnson, Clymer and the whole Democratic ticket, an adjournment took place. The proceedings were enlivened by the Berlin Brass Band, which discoursed, at intervals throughout the evening, their best pieces, in their best style.

AT MYERS'S GROVE.

The meeting in H. J. Myers's Grove, on Saturday last, was a large and enthusiastic affair—a grand Union rally, indeed! It was good to be there! Proceedings next week.

THE MASS MEETING.

The Johnson and Clymer men of this borough held a meeting at Wolf's Hotel, (Globe Inn,) on Saturday evening last, and adopted preliminary measures for the grand Democratic Mass Meeting to be held here on the 4th of October. The demonstration promises to be one of immense proportions—cheering news in regard to turning out reaching us from all parts of the county—and we are glad that our friends here have made a start thus early. "Look out for the engine when the bell rings!"

SOLDIERS' MEETING.

At a meeting of the honorably discharged Soldiers of Butler township, held in Middletown, on Monday evening, Sept. 17th, it was

Resolved, That we organize a Soldiers' Clymer Club, to be called the "White Boys in Blue of Butler tp., and vicinity."

And elected the following officers:

President, Lieut. Samuel H. Eicholtz.
Vice Presidents, Joseph Fleck, Corp. Israel Slothour,
Secretary, Corp. Henry Slothour.
Treasurer, David Starry.
Executive Committee, John Schlosser, Abraham Hoffman, Geo. W. Roth, O. Sergt. James P. McGlaughlin, Corp. Jacob G. Eicholtz, Sergt. Samuel Lentz, John H. McDannell.

Club meets again on Thursday evening, Sept. 27th, at Raffensperger's Schoolhouse.

☞The "White Boys in Blue" had a full and spirited meeting at the Globe Inn on Friday evening. After business, E. B. Buehler, Esq., made a speech, sound and unanswerable in its arguments:

☞Voters, remember that if it had not been for the Radical leaders there would have been no high prices and no increase of taxes. Whenever one of these demagogues approaches you with gabble about the increased county expenditures, tell him to look to his own party for the cause—that but for it getting into power there would have been no war prices and no war taxes—no bloodshed, no debt. If he don't blush at this home thrust, he is dead to all shame, and not fit to talk to a WHITE man.

☞J. A. J. Buchanan, one of the most prominent lawyers of Greene county, and for several years the leading Republican orator of that county, is now laboring earnestly for Clymer and the reconstruction policy of the President.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON AGAIN AT WASHINGTON.

Enthusiastic Receptions at Harrisburg, York, Baltimore, and the National Capital.

The President had a most enthusiastic reception at Harrisburg on Friday evening week, and on Saturday morning the party started for Washington, by way of York. Arriving at the latter place, they found the people at the station by thousands. Cheer upon cheer greeted them. The excurtionists were conducted in carriages to the Washington House, where, from the balcony, the President was welcomed by Judge Fisher, who said:

Mr. President: In behalf of the authorities and citizens of York, I welcome you and your distinguished companions to our ancient town. Here, in the gloomiest days of the Revolution the Continental Congress found a refuge. Here they enacted some of their most important measures. Here rest the sacred ashes of Smith and Livingston, two of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. And, permit me to say that there yet lingers amongst their mouldering bones more of the spirit of true patriotism than breathes in the hearts of all your living defamers. Sir, were they here with us to-day they would hail you as we now do, as the defender and supporter of the Constitution, as the man, who, rising above the trammels of party, determined to do his whole duty, and to suffer obloquy and reproach with a cheerful spirit whilst promoting the welfare and independence of all the States, and securing to future ages the priceless blessing of an unbroken Union. Again, I have the honor to welcome you to our borough, and introduce you to my fellow-citizens.

The President responded by saying that it was with no ordinary feeling of gratitude that he returned his thanks for this cordial welcome to one who had always tried to do his duty. Some allusion had just been made to the patriots of the Revolution—a class of men who periled their all in establishing the government of the United States. If it were possible to communicate with the distinguished dead, he had no more doubt than he had of his existence that they would come forth, shaking off the habiliments of the grave, and stand with us in vindication of the Constitution and the Union of the States. [Applause.] And as the remains of those to whom reference has been made, render this historic and sacred soil, he asked to consecrate it to the Constitution and the Union. He had not time to address his hearers at length on the topics of the day; but, thank God, we have preserved the Union of the States and have a flag containing thirty-six, and not twenty-five Stars [Applause.] An allusion had been made to defamation and detraction, he begged leave to say that from his advent into public life to the present time, he had cherished a reverence for the Constitution of his country, and all the slanders and misrepresentations of orators and a subsidized press could not drive him from his purpose. [Applause.] The time had come when we should all look upon the Constitution as the bulwark of civil and religious liberty. As an ancient orator said: "There is no liberty without law, and the love of law is the soul of liberty." Although we have passed through the ordeal of a civil war, and all had hoped that peace had come, he would say there was now great danger of the consolidation of all the powers of the government in the legislative branch. For a tyrannical and domineering Congress could by two-thirds majority, as it had done, pass destructive measures and force them upon the country. Because he would not sustain them he was denounced as a tyrant and usurper; and this was especially the case because he exercised the veto power—a power conservative in its character, and only negative to check improvident legislation until the people could have time to consider and pass upon the measures disapproved. It is now time for the people at the ballot-box to rebuke the legislative encroachments upon the Constitution; and this, he trusted, they would do. [Cries of "We will."] Warm was his heart and willing was his tongue, to speak for his country's cause. In conclusion he earnestly pleaded for peace. Enough blood has been shed. Let us all unite in the charitable work of peace, in order to a restored Union, that we may triumphantly go upon our career of national glory and prosperity. He retired from the stand applauded by the multitude.

General Grant, Admiral Farragut, Secretary Welles and Rear-Admiral Bradford were introduced, and in turn cheered by the crowd. Here as at all other places on the route, the cheers for General Grant excelled. The party were then escorted to the cars. As they passed through the streets they were greeted with cheers, the ladies waving their handkerchiefs.

At the railroad station at Baltimore, crowds of people had collected, who continually cheered for the President and Gen. Grant. Gov. Swann here met the President, and delivered an address in which he informed him that the City Councils of Baltimore had refused to co-operate with the Mayor in paying proper respect to the Chief Magistrate. This made it necessary that he (the Governor) should await the arrival of the President at this point to afford him such notice to the people that the chief executive officers of this great nation might not be insulted on Maryland soil by a mere handful of men, representing, he honestly believed, scarcely one-quarter of the people of Baltimore. But the President would find a spontaneous uprising of the people who would greet him, and he would find that he was not without friends, for they believed that he was honestly engaged in the patriotic effort to restore a distracted Union, and to stay the tendency toward centralization and consolidation which threatened our common safety. Believing the people of Maryland would stand by him, and speaking to-day as the representative of the State of Maryland, he asked to be believed when he said the insult attempted to be cast on the President proceeded from a class of Radicals who scarcely deserve the name of a party either in Baltimore or in the State. The people at the ballot-box, at the approaching election, will impress them with the fact that they have misrepresented the people in refusing to extend a courtesy to the high position of the Chief Magistrate. The recent reception of the President in the cities through which he had passed had been more marked than any ever heretofore extended to a public man, living or dead; but it could not be more cordial at any stage of the proceedings than that accorded him to-day by the people of this great city.

The President merely expressed his sincere thanks for this welcome from the Governor as the representative of the people of Maryland, not only to him as the Chief Magistrate of the country, but as a citizen of the United States. Both the address and the reply were applauded.

The guests were then conveyed in open carriages, under escort, to the Eutaw House, where they were handsomely entertained. Ex-Gov. Bradford made a speech of welcome, which was responded to at length by the President.

The Presidential party arrived at Washington in the evening, and one of the handsomest demonstrations ever seen in that city was gotten up for their reception. The military, fireman, department clerks, every body, was out. It was a fitting conclusion to so important an excursion.

Another Geary Paper Strikes its Flag!

We notice that the Juniata Republican, published at Mifflintown, Pa., by W. M. Allison & Co., has taken down Geary's name from its mast-head. Surely Satin's kingdom is tumbling down! Every day weakens the Geary forces and adds to the number who will vote for the patriot and statesman, Hiester Clymer.

A Hanover Meeting at Littlestown.

LITTLESTOWN, Sept. 18th, 1866.

MR. EDITOR:—If you will allow me a small space in your valuable and widely circulated journal, I will give you a brief synopsis of the Radical meeting held here on last Saturday night—addressed as it was by a Connecticut "Yankee," and a two cent pettifogger of your place, by the name of D. McConaughy. The first in order was the Yankee, "Gen. Lee," who, upon mounting the rostrum, remarked that he had been travelling through the county of Adams the past week, and had been speaking every night, and this Saturday night had come to the conclusion that if the people of Pennsylvania were as sound as the people of Adams the State was all right. What do the people think of such bombast, from a man entirely ignorant of the facts, when we and every sensible person knows that "Little Adams" will, this fall, wipe out Radicalism so clean, there will not be a grease spot left—and we have necessarily come to the conclusion (from what he says) that Clymer will be triumphantly elected, and seal the fate of Negro Suffrage (to) forever in the glorious old Keystone. The balance of his speech was a perfect tirade of abuse of the Democratic party and the reconstruction policy of Andrew Johnson.

The next in order was that valorous patriot of Gettysburg, "Refreshment" Dave, whose entire speech consisted in slang and vituperation. He pitched into the Compiler to the best of his ability, denouncing you (the editor) in the most bitter terms, and stating that the delegation to Geiselman's Grove from your place consisted of Rufus Swope, Kendlehart, and a man in a spring wagon. What baseness does not the man resort to, to carry out his selfish designs. But the people are not to be deceived by any falsehoods he may utter, as they know too well his former reputation for billingsgate—so much so that the people of Adams county will not be humbugged; and when I say so, I mean this end of the county especially, which will rebuke negroism by an overwhelming majority.

The meeting in toto was very slimly attended. Had there not been a delegation from Hanover they could not have mustered a "corporal's guard." A few more such outpourings of the Radicals here, and I assure you our majority in the lower end will be largely increased. At about eleven o'clock the meeting adjourned with three cheers for Geary and old Thad.

MULTUM IN PARVO.

RIOT—A DASTARDLY OUTRAGE.

The "party of great moral ideas" wound up their pow-wow on Monday evening with general rioting. Between nine and ten o'clock, a large party, composed principally of Greencastle rowdies, under the leadership of "Gil." Rowe, without any provocation, assaulted with stones the Washington House and the residence of T. B. Kennedy, Esq. Most of the front windows of the Washington House were knocked in, and the doors and window frames badly battered, whilst Mr. Sellers, the proprietor, received several severe blows while endeavoring to close the shutters to protect himself against the rage of the infuriated fiends. Mr. Kennedy was standing on the corner of Second and Market when the stoning commenced, and so thick and fast did the stones fly that he could only reach his house by a circuitous route to the rear of his grounds. One stone struck Mr. Sellers on the arm, rendering it entirely powerless.

We understand that legal proceedings will be instituted against the ring-leaders in the riot, in order that the guilty wretches may be brought to merited punishment.

We would simply remark in this connection that it is high time this spirit of lawlessness on the part of the Radical faction should cease. The Democratic party has resolved that it shall cease. If no other remedy will cure these outlaws, they will inscribe on their banners, "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth"—and house for house. Property holders, take warning. A word to the wise should be sufficient.—Carlisle Herald.

A BRAVE SOLDIER'S REPLY.

I did not fight four years for the Union to see it destroyed now by the Radicals.

That was the reply of a brave soldier, who had always been a Republican, to a politician who was urging him to vote for Geary.

A similar reply will be recorded at the ballot-box on the 9th of October by thousands of soldiers in Pennsylvania who have voted the Republican ticket heretofore.

☞If Koontz was really opposed to the extra pay voted to themselves by the members of Congress, why did he take it? If he thought it was more than he was fairly entitled to, why did he not follow the example of Mr. Waddell, of West Virginia, and leave it in the Treasury? These are questions for honest men to think about.

The Radical papers are removing the Constitutional Amendment from their mast-heads. They evidently see that the people are beginning to understand its true meaning, and hence haul it down. This is SIGNIFICANT.

FIRST GUN FROM ILLINOIS.

This wasn't telegraphed, but it is not the less important on that account. There was a very spirited and exciting election for city officers in Alton, Ill., on Tuesday last, the canvass being fought on the National issues now before the country. The result was the overthrow of the Radicals. The rout of the Jacobins was complete and overwhelming. They lost the Mayor, Register, Collector, Treasurer, Marshal, Assessor, and a majority of the City Council. This is, indeed, a glorious beginning for the West, and shows that the people out this way are not of the Maine stripe.—Cincinnati Enquirer, 19th inst.

Immense Democratic Victory in Montana Territory.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 19.—The election in Montana Territory on the 4th inst., is reported to have resulted in a Democratic victory by a majority of 2,000.

☞The Radicals are sneering at the soldiers and sailors who took part in the immense demonstration of the gallant defenders of the Republic at Cleveland. In the same spirit John W. Geary, the disunion candidate for Governor, spoke of them at Baumgardner's woods, near York. Upon that memorable occasion he denounced all "the boys in blue" who met in convention at Harrisburg, as "shysters, cowards, skulkers, and hospital bummers." They will not fail to remember "the hero of Snickersville" at the Ballot-box!

☞We entertain no doubt but that the Democratic and Conservative Republican voters will carry New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Indiana, and we regard our chance as very fair in Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa and Missouri. To sustain themselves, the Radicals must carry all or very nearly all of the leading Northern States, and this it is quite impossible for them to do. The loss of New York alone, or of Pennsylvania and Indiana, would be fatal to them; and as they are certain to lose all of these States and others besides, their defeat is beyond question and without remedy.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

☞The Titusville Club, edited by Jerome B. Close, and heretofore a Radical sheet, has changed its name to that of Evening Journal, and, more important still, has changed its politics from Radicalism to Democracy.

THE AGRICULTURAL FAIR, at Bendersville, will open to-morrow morning, and continue three days. The display will no doubt rival any Fair heretofore had by the Society, and the attendance will be large. We urge the people of the entire county to visit Bendersville during the next three days, convinced that they will be gratified with all they may see. Too much interest cannot be manifested in the agricultural progress of the county, and nothing is better calculated to aid it than the exhibition alluded to. Go—everybody go.

☞Col. J. L. Tate, Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue Tax for this county, requests us to say that the annual list of Income Tax for 1865, and tax on buggies, &c., for 1866, has been received, and is ready for collection. On all taxes not paid on or before the 10th day of October, ten per ct. additional will be added.

☞Rev. Mr. Woodburn will, by Divine permission, preach in the U. P. Church, in this place, on next Sabbath, at 10½ o'clock in the morning and 3 o'clock in the afternoon, on Christ's second coming and the first resurrection.

☞Twenty or thirty bushels of wheat were stolen from the barn of [illegible] near Waltman, near Gulden's Station, on Monday night week. Some oats and a quantity of bacon were taken from a neighboring barn the same night.

☞Let every Democrat be assessed by Friday next—certainly not later than Saturday. The assessments must be made at least ten days before the election.

Cleanse the Blood.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and "good for nothing." But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures these disorders.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and I intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We think we have effected for it, that it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by A. D. Buehler, Gettysburg.

The improvements consist of a large and very superior Bank Barn, just finished, and a commodious BRICK HOUSE in course of erection. It is expected that the House will be complete by the day of sale. There is an Apple Orchard thereon, with a variety of other fruit trees. A part of the land has recently been limed. The outside fences are good. There is a sufficiency of Meadow and Woodland. This place will in a few years become one of the most beautiful and attractive homes in the country. The Great Bone Fertilizer.

BAUGH'S RAW BONE PHOSPHATE, containing 53 per cent. of Phosphate of Lime, and 5.05 per cent. Ammonia.

It should be borne in mind that the Phosphate of Lime in this article being obtained exclusively from RAW BONES and a TRUE BIRD GUANO, there is NO PORTION of it INOPERATIVE, as in the case of SUPER PHOSPHATES made from MINERAL GUANOS—but being entirely SOLUBLE in the SOIL, continues to IMPART its FERTILIZING qualities to the CROPS for YEARS.

The REMARKABLE SUCCESS which has attended its use for years past, is a sufficient, GUARANTY to induce those who have not tried it to do so.

The GRAIN CROP where this FERTILIZER has been applied is supposed to have been INCREASED from 25 to 50 per cent. by its use, while for TOBACCO and GRASS LANDS its success has been EQUALLY DECIDED.

The price in Baltimore is uniform with the Manufacturer's Factory Price.

Soluble Pacific Guano.

200 LBS. SOLUBLE PACIFIC GUANO contains 70 lbs. animal matter, yielding 7 to 8 lbs. ammonia.

Also 80 to 90 lbs. earthy bone Phosphate of lime, 30 lbs. of which are soluble phosphate.

It combines all the advantages of the best brands of Super Phosphate, with those of Peruvian Guano.

By reason of its greater concentration, we recommend 20 per ct. less by weight to be used per acre, than of any fertilizer costing the same per ton; and no more per acre than of those selling at 20 per ct. more per ton.—Hence its economy.

This guano weighs 65 lbs. per bushel, hence in applying it farmers must be governed by weight and not by bulk, for it is much lighter than the Super Phosphates. Every cargo duly inspected.

JOHN S. REESE & CO,
GENERAL AGENTS FOR THE SOUTH,
71 South Street, Baltimore.

"Flour of Bone."

WE will give a money guarantee of the purity of this article. It is pure unsteamed, unburnt bone, reduced to the fineness of flour, which adds 100 per ct. to its value. It is as quick and active as acid dissolved bone, hence its value is vastly greater, because it contains neither acid nor water, which necessarily add weight, and reduce the quantity of valuable elements. We recommend 250 lbs. to be used in place of 300 lbs. Super Phosphate or dissolved bone.

FOUTZ'S

A CELEBRATED

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate broken-down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

THE PERUVIAN SYRUP

IS A PROTECTED SOLUTION OF THE

Protoxide of Iron,

a new discovery in medicine which

STRIKES AT THE ROOT OF DISEASE,

by supplying the Blood with its VITAL PRINCIPLE, OR LIFE ELEMENT—IRON.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing

DYSPEPSIA, LIVER COMPLAINT, DROPSY, CHRONIC DIARRHŒA, BOILS, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Disease of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in A BAD STATE OF THE BLOOD, or accompanied by DEBILITY, or a LOW STATE OF THE SYSTEM.

Being free from Alcohol in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an IRON CONSTITUTION.

DYSPEPSIA AND DEBILITY.

From the Venerable Archdeacon Scott, D. D.

DUNHAM, Canada East, March 24, 1865.

* * * "I am an inveterate Dyspeptic of more than 25 years' standing."

* * * "I have been so wonderfully benefitted in the three short weeks during which I have used the Peruvian Syrup, that I can scarcely persuade myself of the reality. People who have known me are astonished at the change. I am widely known, and can but recommend to others that which has done so much for me."

One of the most DISTINGUISHED JURISTS in New England writes to a friend as follows:

"I have tried the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and the result fully sustains your prediction. It has made a NEW MAN of me; infused into my system new vigor and energy; I am no longer tremulous and debilitated, as when you last saw me, but stronger, heartier, and with larger capacity for labor, mental and physical, than at any time during the last five years."

An EMINENT DIVINE of Boston, says:

"I have been using the PERUVIAN SYRUP for some time past; it gives me new vigor, buoyancy of spirits, elasticity of muscle."

☞THOUSANDS have been changed by the use of this remedy; from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

A pamphlet of 32 pages, containing certificates of cures and recommendations from some of the most eminent physicians, clergymen, and others, will be sent FREE to any address.

SEYMOUR THATCHER, M. D.,

"WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY gives universal satisfaction. It seems to cure a Cough by loosening and cleansing the lungs, and allaying irritation, thus REMOVING THE CAUSE, instead of drying up the cough and leaving the cause behind. I consider the Balsam as good as any, if not the best, Cough medicine with which I am acquainted."

The Rev. JACOB SECHLER, of Hanover, Pa., well known and much respected among the German population of this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted:

Dear Sirs:—Having realized in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters seemed to be in a decline, and little hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balsam, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. I have, in my individual case, made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and have always been benefitted by it.
